

Birth, Marriage & Death Records

Register of Deeds Office

Linda Opland, Deputy and Cheryl McBride, Register of Deeds with record books

The Register of Deeds keeps records of births, marriages and deaths back to 1851. Legal and Genealogical research depends on accurate records of county residents. Each year approximately 5000 Vital Records are maintained by the Register of Deeds office, with approximately 20,000 certified copies made for customers.

Servant Leadership is our business.
