Solid Waste Disposal Grant – Program Application

Instructions

This program is open to applicants of the County's Acquisition & Demolition Grant Program, and offers an opportunity for additional benefit through the waiver of disposal fees for demolition debris. It is only offered as a supplement to the Acquisition & Demolition Grant Program, and not as a stand alone grant opportunity.

To apply for a funding, please complete this application form and submit it to the La Crosse County Community Development office at the above address. Applications will not be considered until they are complete. If you need assistance or have questions, please contact us.
