Question 1: What is one thing that you learned today that will help make parenting easier this week:

- You are not alone
- I'm not alone
- Knowing I'm not alone
- That these struggles are real and others that open up and share offer great tools and experiences to help you find solutions. You are not alone.
- We are all struggling to some degree
- Everyone has the same problems and no one should judge
- Even though every family has their different ways of living, we all have similar ways of life.
- I am still learning. I have 5 boys, 3 are adults, so I did a good job.
- I learned you don't always act like your kids are your friends, sometimes it is good to discipline
- It's not too late to put your foot down and get respect

Question 2: What did you like best about today:

- The openness and willing to talk about the differences in our kids
- How open everyone was
- How open and easy the discussion was. No judgement
- Everyone being so open
- How we were able to open up and relate to others
- How everybody was respectful and listened
- Splitting up and talking in small groups
- Friendliness of everyone
- Getting together and talking to other moms.
- The open discussion and speakers giving tools
