Happy Library
Card Day!

September is Library Card Sign-Up Month!

When youth sign up for a library card with us during the month of September, we'll feature their name on an Elephant and Piggie library card wall display at their sign-up location. Sign up for a library card, and find something wonderful at your library. Teachers, book your fall class visits now to get library cards into your students' hands!

Chalk the walk: A Map into the World

Join us this fall for an outdoor chalk art opportunity for all youth ages! Tune in to our YouTube channel anytime October 11-16 to watch Miss Jess share a reading of the award-winning picture book A Map Into the World, written by Hmong American author Kao Kalia Yang and illustrated by Seo Kim. Then, when kids visit one of our five libraries and complete their own sidewalk chalk art drawing in designated locations, they can enter a drawing for a copy of the book. We'll feature the chalk art creativity throughout the week on social media. Winners announced October 18. One entry per child.

Book Bundles for Youth

Youth Services is pleased to offer a fun youth book selection service. Complete the online form, and our Youth Services team will compile a bundle of five (or more) books for you to borrow based on your (or your child's) reading interests. We contact you to arrange pickup details as soon as possible once we have completed your book selections. Check out this convenient, time-saving way to get new books and materials into the hands of young readers. Service also available for educators.
